

MAFS 2010 Special Events

- What: BTK: The True Story of the Bind, Torture, Kill Serial Killer
- When: Monday, October 4
6:00-9:00 pm
- Where: Count Basie Ballroom, Marriott Tower
- Cost: $10.00 and an RSVP! (includes cash bar and heavy hors-d'oeuvres)

Spend an evening hearing the true story of the BTK serial killer direct from one of the men who caught him. Between 1974 and 1991, Dennis Rader, the BTK killer, murdered 10 people in and around Wichita, Kansas. He sent letters to police and local news outlets describing his modus operandi of “bind, torture, kill” as recently as 2005. Learn from Lt. Ken Landwehr how investigators used modern forensic techniques to process evidence from crime scenes that were decades old to solve one of Kansas’ most notorious serial killers. The evening will also showcase a Kansas City crime scene supply company, so come get the scoop on the latest and greatest tools for crime scene investigation.

- What: MAFS Night out at the Movies!
- When: Tuesday, October 5
- Where: AMC MainStreet 6 in the Power & Light District
- Cost: $25.00 (includes CinemaSuites ticket and dinner voucher)

The AMC MainStreet theatre offers an all-digital experience operating out of a 1920’s converted vaudeville and movie house. Experience an evening at the movies in their CinemaSuites, the ultimate in luxury moviegoing featuring plush reclining seats, bar service, and a custom menu which allows you to enjoy a meal served while you relax in front of a film. The ticket price includes a $15 voucher towards food and beverage. The evening will include a tour of the remaining portions of the vaudeville theatre and an overview of how movies are projected today in a digital world.

- What: Bar Hop at the Power & Light

When: Wednesday, October 6
Around 7:00pm following the Vendor Reception
Where: Power & Light District
Cost: No cost except for your refreshments!

The Power & Light District houses KC Live!, located directly across the street from the Sprint Center in the heart of the district. KC Live features an outdoor “living room” complete with covered roof, seating and heat. It’s where Kansas City goes to play, featuring world-class restaurants, taverns, and night spots. The group will depart from the hotel following the Vendor Reception, and walk the few blocks to the Power & Light District.

What: Backyard BBQ Tailgate Gala!
When: Thursday, October 7
6:00-11:00 pm
Where: The Barney Allis Plaza outdoor park, located right in front of the Marriott Downtown
(Although the KC October is generally mild, don’t forget your coat just in case. We do have an indoor rain location on hand!)
Cost: Admission for one is included in the cost of your meeting registration!
Additional tickets only $40.00

Kansas City is a town built on barbecue and we have the world’s largest barbecue contest to prove it! Come enjoy a BBQ dinner and entertainment in our downtown backyard! BBQ and tailgating go hand-in-hand, so show your support for the team and sport of your choice and wear your team colors while you enjoy the beautiful fall weather, the lights of the city, and a BBQ dinner, dancing and prizes until the stars come out. Face painting and trash talk between rival teams is encouraged, out and out brawling is not (unless it’s between a KU Jayhawk and an MU Tiger) and all team spirit is welcome!

See you in October!!!!
